

An introduction to the Gospel of Luke

Wednesday evening

February 13th, 7.30pm,

St Michael's Church, Andover

You may know that the gospel reading on many Sundays this year is to be from the gospel of Luke. I was fortunate in November to attend a day seminar taught by a Lukan scholar, and have moulded his notes and teaching into a handout and brief presentation.

Several of the Over Wallop folk received the presentation in December, and have encouraged me to offer a new improved version (!) for our other parishes.

- We'll begin by reflecting on the gospel as a historically reliable document
- Be amazed by Luke as a non-Jewish convert having a remarkable grasp of the Old Testament
- Join the excitement for Jesus conveyed by Luke the scholar and doctor
- Perhaps find our own closeness to God warmed and kindled.

Blessings
