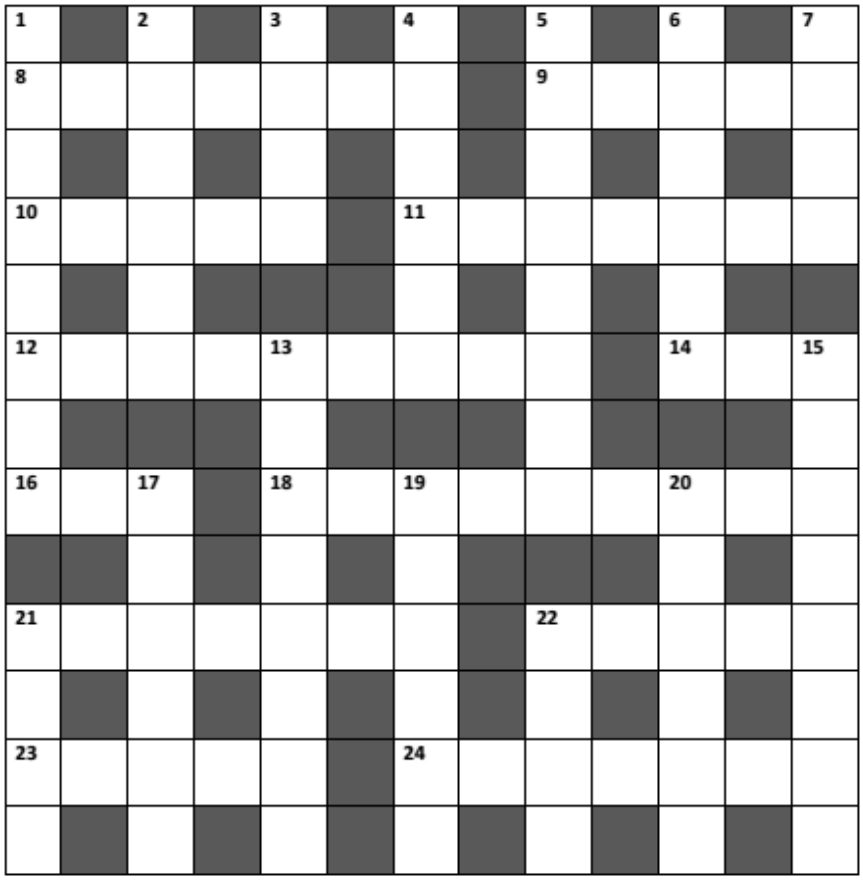
CROSSWORD PAGE

This month's challenge is different. Instead of my providing clues for the words which complete the grid, readers are invited to choose their own words to fit the grid and to send them to me. Your words must be in Chambers English Dictionary. Some will have heard me say that filling a blank grid is more difficult than writing the clues. I shall then be able to set about composing clues for use in the months to come.


Stephen Baldock (contact details on the WhosWho page)