PORTWAY AND DANEbury BENEFICE

WORSHIPPING, WITNESSING, WORKING

PRAYERS

Around the Benefice:

We pray that as a Benefice we may unite through the love of Christ, respecting our differences and enjoying our fellowship. We pray that all the schools within our parishes have a lovely, restful Easter break: Grateley Primary, Grateley House School, Amport C of E Primary and Feathered Skies Pre-School, the Wallops Primary School and the Wallops Pre-school.

Our Link Diocese: Prayers for Goma

One of the most profound and prophetic actions we can take in a situation of insecurity and uncertainty is simply to carry on with ordinary lives of faithfulness, witnessing a deeper reality than the one we see day to day. We carry on praying, trusting in God, meditating on Scripture, celebrating communion, serving others, working together, strengthening the church and planning with God for a future where Goma is at peace.

"FILL YOUR CHURCH WITH FAITH AND HOPE;

FOR A NEW DAY HAS DAWNED

AND THE WAY TO LIFE STANDS OPEN IN OUR SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST."

PRAYERS AND READINGS FOR SUNDAY (MARCH 31ST) EASTER

Collect

God of glory,
by the raising of your Son
you have broken the chains of death and hell:
fill your Church with faith and hope;
for a new day has dawned
and the way to life stands open
in our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen

Acts 10.34-43

Then Peter began to speak to them: I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.

Mark 16.1-8

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb? When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you. So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Post Communion

God of Life,
who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son
to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection
have delivered us from the power of our enemy:
grant us so to die daily to sin,
that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his risen life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen
